

Organa Silverstrand's Rules of the Tower

Dear Pets, Pests, and Guests:

1. Don't. Clean. Anything. Especially not with a broom.
2. All brooms must be stored whisk-upright.
3. Spirits may only enter in if they come in a bottle. Fire-rye is preferred.
4. Under no circumstances is it permissible to stir the cauldron. If bubbling, maintain distance at all times. Contents have been known to explode.
5. The Ravens are called Gog and Magog. Please do not confuse their names; they will voice their disapproval and NO one will get any sleep.
6. Don't eat the spiders. I know they look tasty.
7. If you are caught in one of Fitzwilliam's webs, remain still and do not panic. Fighting the fibers will only strtngthen their hold. If you wade into a spiderweb during the Scorpio Moon, your freedom may have to wait a week.
8. The practice of magin herein shall cause no harm to anyone. Even Lord Lockhart. + NIXIE KNOX
9. The position of Familiar is currently vacant. Vixens, Hares, and Serpents may apply within. Absolutely NO Cats.
10. Finally, no one may alter the Rules of the Tower. That means you, Nixie Knox.
